Trust Your Trees with the Experts

By Deanna Evans

Bradley & Sons Tree Service is a full-service tree care company.

With a degree in forestry from Oklahoma State University, owner Kylie Bradley has the expertise and knowledge to provide the highest-quality care for your trees.

"I opened my business in 2006," said Bradley. "Early on, my two oldest sons worked with me. Since then, they have moved to different careers. Now, my two youngest sons are working with me."

Bradley & Sons Tree Service provides risk assessment and consultations, which are free of charge if Bradley is hired for services after the consult.

"I enjoy helping people determine what is best for their trees," said Bradley. "I've always been interested in tree health and deciding how we can improve their appearance, health, and growth."

In addition to general tree maintenance and removal, Bradley & Sons Tree Service specializes in removing hazard trees, pruning, and stump grinding.

For more information or to schedule a free estimate, please call 918-766-5657 from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Saturday, or email bradleyandsonstrecare@gmail.com.

A Beautiful Lawn Doesn't Happen by Itself

By Deanna Evans

Mr. C's Lawncare pays special attention to the details of their work to ensure the complete satisfaction of each client.

"I have learned over the years that making a habit of excellence is how I want to run Mr. C's Lawncare," said Randy Cummings, owner and operator. "I will always strive to leave your lawn looking the best it possibly can with each service."

Mr. C's has been in business for six years and is planning to continue growing in Bartlesville. Cummings got his business name after his wife, Tammy, reminded him of how his dad used to greet him. His dad would say, "Well, hello there, Mr. C." With that inspiration, Cummings pursued his business, taking care of customers' lawns like his father taught him.

Today, his desire is to operate in excellence, dress professionally, and treat each customer with respect.

"He does a great job keeping my yard looking great from spring to fall clean up," H. Mahoney said in an online review of Mr. C's. "Very professional and reliable. My yard has never looked this good in the past. So happy with his work and would highly recommend him."

Mr. C's Lawncare offers online bill pay, and accepts checks and cash. If you would like a bid for services, call Mr. C, at 918-440-4101 or visit <https://mrCs-lawncare.com/> and fill out the request for bid form.

Get Ready for Spring at Evans Nursery

by Deanna Evans

Spring planting is fast approaching, and Evans Nursery has everything a person might need for planting.

With more than six decades in business, Evans Nursery has the expertise to help you create healthy, beautiful landscapes and gardens. Their experts are on-hand to answer questions and help select the perfect plants and necessities for their customers' goals. "Our garden center is sure to have just the thing you need to make your property truly special," said Owner Vicki Evans. "From plants to outdoor furniture, we have it all and much more. Come pay us a visit and stop in to see our extensive collection."

Evans' garden center features numerous planters for sale. Staff can be hired to create custom planters at your homes.

Evans Nursery has a variety of items to create interest and beauty in an outdoor space, including park benches, decorative pots, birdhouses, bird baths, bird feeders, decorative steppingstones, gazing globes of various sizes, wind chimes, and wind spinners. "We have a large selection of Henri items, like concrete fountains, statues and planters," said Vicki. "Some things are whimsical, and some are more sophisticated."

Evans Nursery has the experience and resources to exceed their customers' landscaping expectations. "Whether you'd like to completely remodel your backyard to include that serene outdoor room you've always dreamed of, or simply need assistance with planning and designing, we can help make your vision a reality," said Vicki.

For a remarkable outdoor space, Evans Nursery sells garden gadgets and gift ideas, different habitats for pollinators, outdoor furniture, outdoor pillows, and solar lanterns.

For spring planting needs, Evans also carries garden vegetables, seeds for micro-greens (like lettuces), sprouting seeds, and sprouters. They offer various hand tools, shovels, pruners — everything a gardener might need. They also carry a variety of organic fertilizers. "Give us a call today to discuss your particular gardening needs and requirements," said Vicki. "For every person, regardless of experience with flowers, gardens, plants, or landscapes, you will be treated like family — because that's how our business, which has more than 60 years of experience, makes sure you have the best experience possible."

The business opened in 1954 and its legacy now includes four generations of the family to work at the nursery. Vicki and her three children operate the thriving business and her grandchildren are starting to learn and work there, as well.

Evans Nursery is located at 111 Beck Dr., in Bartlesville. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday. The nursery is closed on Sundays. For more information, please call 918-333-3248.

Bartlesville Civic Ballet Presents Cinderella

by Deanna Evans

Tradition. Legacy. Excellence ... These are just some of the words used to describe Bartlesville Civic Ballet.

What better way to present the classical fairytale Cinderella than with a full-length classical, modern ballet production with a selection of variations from classical ballets. Patrons will soon enjoy that production on the Bartlesville Community Center stage.

The live performance will begin at 2 p.m. April 17, and a virtual performance will also be available. Tickets for both are available at the Bartlesville Community Center. Strict COVID-19 procedures will be in place during the live performance.

"This year, join us for the fairytale classic that sparkles with humor and heart, choreographed by our own Soili Arvola to the melodious composition of Sergei Prokofiev," said Josh Matney, board member of the BCB.

Miss Arvola has been a part of Bartlesville Civic Ballet performances since 1983, when she first started as a guest artist. Katie Matney serves as artistic director.

Audiences will be enraptured by the Pas de Deux between Cinderella and her Prince Charming, and then burst with laughter over the shenanigans of the ugly stepsisters.

Countless hours of instruction in technique and rehearsals are the basis for every production, and we are rewarded with nothing less than the dancers' personal best when the curtain goes up.

One of the longest-standing performing arts organizations in Bartlesville, BCB performances began in the 1970s.

"Whether you are a long-time supporter of the Bartlesville Civic Ballet or this is your first year contributing, please know that we are committed to our community and keeping alive the 'tradition, legacy, and excellence' that has always been a part of our organization," said Matney.

Bartlesville Civic Ballet's "Cinderella" tickets are sold exclusively through the Bartlesville Community Center. For questions regarding tickets, please call 918-337-2787.

Vacation Destination for Your Pets

by Deanna Evans

Our furry friends deserve the very best! Whether it's for daycare, boarding, or grooming, PAWS Resort & Spa has your pet's interest at heart.

"When you're on vacation, your pet should be, too," said Toni Parry, owner. "At PAWS Resort & Spa your pet will get the luxury treatment."

PAWS facilities and amenities go above and beyond the average kennel. They have 5 x 10 or 10 x 10 suites with tile walls and tempered glass doors. "Your pet will love relaxing on their own custom leather sofa or playing with staff and other pets in our 1,000 square-foot indoor playroom with rubber floors," she said.

A satisfied customer, Carolyn Harpole, had this to say: "PAWS is a dog's unique experience. The dogs are lavished with love and care. The owner knows each dog that stays there by name. There is a huge playroom where the dogs play with other breeds their own size. My dog LOVES to go there. If they are boarded overnight, the accommodations are fantastic. I can't say enough about how my dog and I love this place."

The facility is air conditioned and heated for your pet's comfort. While you are away, you can check on your pet using the webcams. You can even chat with your friend and give them a treat from your smartphone or tablet. You can have piece of mind that your pet is well protected with their 16 security cameras located all over the facility. The building has an alarm system with fire protection that calls the fire department immediately if smoke or heat is detected.

PAWS feeds a grain-free food or you can bring your own.

For a feline guest, they have luxury cat condos with multi-level areas to lounge the day away. "Your feline family member will receive lots of attention when they stay with us," Parry said.

PAWS also offers daycare services. "If your pet has anxiety or behavior problems, or you just hate leaving them in a wire kennel all day at home while you are at work, then daycare is for you," she said.

Weekly and monthly packages are available.

Each pet gets one-on-one playtime with staff, or if your pet prefers, just love and affection. Each dog is taken out to a secure area to ensure they get ample time to potty outside.

Grooming services are available, as well. "We have two state-of-the-art grooming rooms for your pet to receive all the pampering you want," said Parry. "Get the cut you want at a great price."

For more information on PAWS Resort & Spa, please call 918-337-0100, visit their website at paws-resort.com or stop by their beautiful facility at 1300 E. Tuxedo Blvd., Bartlesville, OK 74003.

Waging a Battle to Help Returning Veterans

by Deanna Evans

Veterans Connection Organization's Founder Sharon "Lynn" Reese has been selected as Veteran Rally Point leader by the Oklahoma Veteran Alliance.

"At Veterans Connection Organization, we are dedicated to stepping up our efforts in addressing the issues veterans face as they transition to civilian life," said Reese. "Advocacy is by no means an easy feat, but through cooperation and community empowerment we believe we can facilitate progress in this area."

Veteran Rally Points (VRP) is a program that leverages the power of relationship and military culture through mentor programs to bring our heroes home. Through a two-day mentorship boot camp, veteran mentors are trained and equipped with the tools necessary to support veterans in navigating the journey home. Designed to be regionally mobilized throughout Oklahoma, each VRP consists of a six-person leadership team trained to navigate six supportive pillars — federal, state, local, non-profit, tribal, and private sectors. They engage their community to identify resources consistent with transitional challenges veterans may face and recruit these providers into the Oklahoma Veteran Connections network.

Additionally, Veteran Rally Points will also provide connection and support for veterans who are participating in Veterans Treatment Courts or battling homelessness. This model leverages the important value of culturally-based mentorship to connect veterans to resources.

The program was founded by Tulsa-based 3C-Concepts, a veteran-owned business, and is supported by Oklahoma Veteran Alliance. It works in close partnership with Oklahoma Veteran Connections. "Relationships are the cornerstone of any successful program, and they are the bridge home for our veterans," said Stacy Hester, Marine veteran and owner of 3C-Concepts.

Veteran Rally Points builds "relational bridges home" for the healthy transition and community integration of our veterans from active duty and/or reintegration to homelessness and/or incarceration. Carry the mission, together!

Veterans Connection Organization, One-Resource Office for Veterans is located at 6105 SE Nowata Rd. For more information please call 918-376-0022 or 405-323-6139 or visit the organization's website at vcobville.com.

Find Restoration and Intimacy with the Lord

by Curt Landry

We all know Romans 8:28, "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose."

We have told others this verse when they are going through times of adversity. But how do we walk by this truth? How do we find the endurance to keep moving forward?

The key is to draw near to our heavenly Father's heart.

We are in a season when God is shaping our character for what is to come. We can't be distracted by our circumstances and hardships, but let us focus on Him, draw near to Him, and step into His presence.

There is where we find restoration and experience the intimacy of His love that will give us the strength to endure any attack and heavy burden we come up against.

He invites us to come. He invites us into His presence.

When Jesus walked on earth, He continuously invited people to draw near to Him. He didn't say, "Fix yourself up and then come to Me." Rather He focused on the condition of their hearts and their need for Him.

The same applies still. He wants us to realize that He is the only way to the Father. He wants us to see our need for Him, to humble ourselves. And in that lowly place, the Father will release love and restoration upon us.

In that humble place, we will experience an intimate covenant relationship that leads to rest.

• "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light." — Matthew 11:28-30

• "And Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall never hunger, and he who believes in Me shall never thirst. But I said to you that you have seen Me and yet do not believe. All that the Father gives Me will come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I will by no means cast out.'" — John 6:35-37

• "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth ... Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." — Matthew 5:3-5, 7-8

The Lord is always inviting us to enter into His presence for restoration and rest. In that presence-place, there is intimacy.

You are called for today. You are not rejected, even when your circumstances and the world are against you. You only need time to reset your love on the Father, and the Father will reset His love on you.

Take time today to meditate on His glory and to soak in His presence.

In that place, His instruction and direction become known. Gaze into His loving eyes and run into His comforting arms. There you will receive the blessings and strength to endure.

Are you looking for a place to help you understand your purpose and empower your faith? Be a part of the family at House of David. Visit www.HouseofDavid.com to discover how you can get involved and grow in your relationship with Christ.

Add a Dash of Spice to Your Kitchen

(BPT) — In today's homes, kitchens serve a multitude of purposes beyond being a space to whip up a meal. They're the heart of your home, the command center, and the family gathering spot. So it's no wonder why kitchens are where homeowners invest their renovation budget, and why homebuyers pay a premium for an updated look. And savvy design professionals agree, spicing up your kitchen with stylish, timeless, and natural materials — like cypress — is a recipe for success.

Laying it out

Planning a new or remodeled kitchen can be an exciting, yet overwhelming, time. Designer Erika Powell, from Urban Grace Interiors in Santa Rosa Beach, Florida, said making the process less stressful boils down to ensuring the layout meets your needs.

"When starting a project, we first like to sit down with our clients in order to get to know them and how they will be using their kitchen," she said. "If an architect is involved, we also like to work hand-in-hand with them so that any overarching architectural vision they may have is included in the interior design as well."

Nowadays, homeowners are mostly looking for open concept floorplans with kitchens that open up to living and dining rooms. And because there's less available wall space, there are fewer upper cabinets. To compensate, modern kitchen layouts feature expansive islands with seating and storage, a pantry for canned and dry goods, and a butler pantry to hide away less frequently used items.

"Once we determine the layout, then we get to work on selecting building products and finishes," Powell said. "While there is a wide range of products to choose from, our style focuses on fine materials and classic design elements. Many clients gravitate toward light and natural materials — and products like real wood are just more beautiful. A wood like cypress is stable and durable with unique charm. It's a fixture in many of our kitchen projects."

Deciding on cabinets

When it comes to choosing cabinetry, architect Ben Patterson, from Bossier City,

Louisiana, said it doesn't take long to notice the difference between cabinetry that's built with solid wood and what you can find at the big box stores.

"In my experience, homeowners value the natural character and quality of solid wood cabinets," he said. "I'm a full-service architect and usually design custom cabinets for the projects I work on. And I like working with local materials, so my cabinet designs usually have a cypress face with a birch box."

Selecting a finish can be tricky, but Patterson said trends come and go. "Painted cabinets seem to be all the rage these days, but a natural wood finish is tasteful and timeless," he said. "And that's another reason I love cypress. Whether new growth, old growth, sinker, or pecky, cypress is simply beautiful."

Topping it off

If your kitchen feels a little bland, luxury homebuilder Matt Cain, from Dallas-based Tatum Brown Custom Homes, said what's overhead is often overlooked.

"In kitchens, we typically install a wood plank ceiling treatment to add visual texture and aesthetic warmth," he said. "There are a lot of materials to work with, but I prefer cypress — especially pecky cypress — because it offers such a specific look and homeowners just fall in love with it. In fact, I've never painted a cypress ceiling; it's too beautiful to cover up."
